

Scott Valley Libraries' Annual Writing Contest - 2019

Gratitude / Civility / Kindness

In 2019, the Fort Jones and Etna Libraries will once again celebrate National Library Week one month early with a Writing Contest/ Open House. There are three themes to choose from or combine: Gratitude/ Civility/ Kindness. Your true-life (non-fiction) or imagined (fiction) work may take the form of a story, poem, play, essay, or ???.

These interrelated/ overlapping themes were chosen for the following reasons:

- Gratitude – because we began considering themes around Thanksgiving, that time of year when we seem to be most aware of the things we are grateful for and the power of gratitude.
- Civility – to share the MAD Players 2019 melodrama theme. Gold Meddlin' or Cain't We All Jest Git Along? considers how to listen and be heard, to respect and be respected...
- Kindness – to honor Marshall Peckham, who embodied kindness, and passed away in 2018. He was graduate of Etna elementary, SV Jr High, and Etna High School along with College of the Redwoods and UC Santa Cruz.

All authors are invited to read or present their work at the Fort Jones Library Open House tentatively scheduled on Tuesday March 19th. Please call to confirm date and time. We expect to schedule 6th grade and younger to begin reading at 5 pm, 7th Grade through adult to begin at 5:45. Come celebrate! Food (light snacks) will be provided. The library will attempt to contact all authors receiving special recognition prior to the Open House. We are looking forward to hearing your story, poem, play, essay!
